

THE UNITING CHURCH IN AUSTRALIA (SYNOD OF NSW AND THE ACT) SYNOD OFFICE

LEGAL INSTRUMENT
CERTIFICATE OF CORRECTNESS.
- FUNDING AGREEMENTS

Any legal instrument created by the instruction of a Uniting Church body to give effect to a grant or funding which is to be submitted for execution by the Property Trusts must be accompanied by this form of certification.

Our procedures require that the administering Church Council/Board/Committee of Management/etc, certify that such documents have been examined and satisfy the interests and security of the Church by accurately giving effect to the particular transaction.

Section 1. of the Certificate should clearly identify the document/s submitted for execution and be signed by the persons holding office on behalf of the administering body.

A fully completed Certificate of Correctness must therefore accompany any document forwarded for execution or it cannot be progressed until the Certificate is received. The Property Trust may then require further independent examination of the instrument, particularly where a major financial commitment is involved. If this requires the services of a professional consultant, the costs are a charge to be met by the administering body which is making the submission, however the body would be consulted before any such costs are incurred.
